

FMAA™ (Financial and Managerial Accounting Associate)

Training Course FMAA™ (Financial and Managerial Accounting Associate)
From IMA (Institute of Management Accountants)

Course Language English / Arabic

Course Duration Total Number of hours :20

- Course Objectives
- To provide a comprehensive review of fundamental principles of financial and managerial accounting.
 - To prepare participants for the FMAA certification exam by covering all the required topics.
 - To enhance participants' understanding of key accounting concepts and their practical applications in business settings.
 - To develop participants' skills in solving typical exam questions and case studies related to financial and managerial accounting.

Course Key Topic Area Includes:

- Course Content
- General Accounting and the Balance Sheet
 - Income and Other Financial Statements
 - Recognition and Valuation in Financial Statements
 - Internal Controls and Managing Daily Finances
 - Financial Statement Analysis
 - Cash Management and Performance Metrics
 - Planning and Budgeting
 - Cost and Variance Measures
 - Cost Information for Decision Making and Ethics

- Learning Outcomes
- At the end of the program the trainees will be able to:
 - Mastery of fundamental concepts in financial and managerial accounting as required for the FMAA certification.
 - Ability to apply accounting knowledge to solve real-world business problems and make informed financial decisions.
 - Preparedness to successfully pass the FMAA certification exam with a thorough understanding of exam format and question types.
 - Enhanced skills in analyzing financial statements and performing financial and managerial accounting tasks.

Target Audience

- Early career professionals in accounting and finance seeking certification.
- Students and recent graduates looking to affirm their knowledge through certification.
- Professionals in related fields (such as operations or sales) who need foundational accounting knowledge for career advancement.

Course Material /Technology used/ Details Relevant to the course.

- Textbooks and Resources: Latest editions of recommended financial and managerial accounting textbooks.
- Software and Tools: Use of accounting software and Excel for practical accounting applications and exam practice.
- Online Resources: Access to online platforms for supplementary materials, practice tests, and interactive learning.
- Practice Exams: Sample tests and exam-style questions to simulate the testing environment and improve test-taking skills.